

Louis F. Moret

CalPERS Board of Administration

Dr. Louis F. Moret was appointed to a four year term to the Board of Administration in February 2008 by the Assembly Speaker, the State Senate Rules Committee, and the Assembly.

Dr. Moret brings more than 30 years experience in public administration and finance to the CalPERS Board. He presently serves on the Investment, Performance and Compensation, Finance and Policy Benefits and Program Administration Committees, as well as on the Policy Subcommittee of the Investment Committee.

Dr. Moret is a former board member of the Los Angeles Fire and Police Pension Board. He was first appointed to the board in 1991 by Mayor Tom Bradley, and served under three other mayors. He also served as President and Vice President of that Board, as well as the Chair of the real estate and investment committees. During his tenure, the pension fund grew from 65 percent funded to full funding.

Dr. Moret has also served on numerous private and non-profit boards including the First Bank of Beverly Hills; Amervest, a fixed income asset management firm; The East Los Angeles Community Union; JT 2 Corporation, a workers compensation service provider; and Lat-TV, a low-power television station serving the Hispanic community; and Diamond Contract Services, Inc., a comprehensive janitorial services company.

He is also an Adjunct Professor of the Graduate School of Public Policy at Pepperdine University. Dr. Moret was also a member of the Democratic National Committee from 1981-93, and served as Chair of the Hispanic Caucus from 1982-84. He is also a founding board member of the National Association of Latino Elected Officials and served on the board of directors of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute from 1985-1990. He has been a delegate to every Democratic Convention since 1984.

For more than 15 years, Dr. Moret served as Chief Operating Officer at the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG), the largest regional planning organization in the United States. Prior to joining SCAG, he was Vice President of Cranston Securities Company, where he specialized in public finance and interacted extensively with finance directors, city managers and other officials in state and local government. In 1979, he was appointed by President Jimmy Carter and confirmed by the United States Senate to serve as the first Director of the Office of Minority Economic Impact in the Department of Energy. He also served as Commissioner of the Los Angeles Department of Public Works, Chief of staff for Assemblyman Richard Alatorre and Deputy Director for the United States Office of Minority Business Enterprise.

He earned his Doctor of Public Administration from the University of La Verne, his Masters in Public Administration from the University of Southern California, and his Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from Whittier College. He is also a recipient of a Professional Designation for Senior Managers in Government from Harvard University.

Dr. Moret is a licensed Professional Boxing Referee and has officiated in over 115 World Championship Fights.

Dr. Moret has five grown children and resides in Los Angeles with his wife.
